The New Prairie Girls' Basketball team won a conference contest against rival Jimtown 61-31. Maddie McSurley led the way with 19 points and double figure rebounds. Libby Lapczynski poured in 17 points including 5 three pointers and tons of assists. Kailin Strauch and Sydney Meyers patrolled that paint to stop the Jimmies down low. Allison Pavlick and Jordan Winters played great in the front court. The rest of the team made major contributions to help the team get to the finish line. The Cougars return to action against Marion Tuesday. Please come out and support the Lady Cougars!
